Dear Milford Families

Next week is Feeling Good Week at Milford School and we have so many wonderful things planned for the children to enjoy. Including our Binca sewing afternoon on Wednesday, so please remember to pop their designs in book bags (a sheet came home in book bags and via email this week).

We hope you enjoy the Bank Holiday weekend and we'll see you on Tuesday.

Much love, the Milford Team

Feeling Good Week

Next week is Feeling Good Week at Milford School. We have some exciting activities planned to make us feel good such as mindfulness, yoga workshops, the Binca sewing afternoon on Wednesday at 2pm (let the school office know if you can come) and of course we will be feeling fabulous as we all dress for Break the Rules on Friday.

Eco-council have also asked that as part of Feeling Good Week we celebrate David Attenborough's 100th birthday on the 8th May and think carefully about how spending time in nature can help us to feel good.

Reception will also have some lovely pets visiting too as part of learning about how to look after animals. We can't wait to tell you all about our week!

Everyone to grow, learn, believe, achieve

Break the Rules Day

We're all looking forward to Break the Rules Day on Friday 8th May but please make sure you remove any nail polish, temporary / glitter tattoos, coloured hairspray etc before school on Monday.

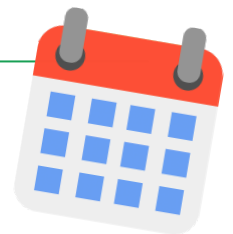

See the poster below for more information about the day.

Sun cream & hats

On sunny days, please put sun cream on your children before school. They can also bring in a named bottle to put in their book bag but must be able to apply it themselves. We also encourage you to bring in a named sun hat.
